

Ian Cobain

Ian Cobain has been a journalist since the early 1980s and is currently an investigative reporter with the Guardian. His inquiries into the UK's involvement in torture since 9/11 have won a number of major awards, including the Martha Gellhorn Prize and the Paul Foot Award for investigative journalism. He has also won several Amnesty International media awards and a human right award from Liberty. He is the author of two books: Cruel Britannia, an investigation into Britain's use of rendition and mistreatment since WW2, and The History Thieves, a study of official secrecy in the UK.